

Client Spotlight: Meiji Pharmacy

Meiji Pharmacy

From L to R: Dean Tofukuji, Tak Yoshikawa, Erica Sasaki, Kazuko Sato, Cliff Yamashita, Darrin Komae, Nicole Shimazu, Clarissa Diaz, Karin Moreno, Junko Goto

On a quiet Wednesday afternoon, Meiji Pharmacy, located in the Pacific Square Shopping Center, was bustling with a steady stream of customers.

As each one entered, owner Cliff Yamashita, whether he was sorting through bottles of medication or helping at the cash register, still found time to give personalized care and attention to each client. As they entered the store, Yamashita and his staff greeted each one by their first name, having known most of them and their family members for generations. This type of personalized service has disappeared in big chain pharmacies but is the focal point to this operation in Gardena. "It's not the product but how you treat people", said Yamashita.

Meiji Pharmacy was established in 1977 by pharmacist, Cliff Yamashita.

Articles: Flood Insurance / Holiday Driving

What You Need to Know About Flood Insurance—You've probably heard this horror story before — someone loses a home due to a flood and learns after the fact that their standard homeowners insurance doesn't cover flood damage.

At AHTKY, we want you to know about the catastrophic risks you may face, before a loss occurs, so you can determine what insurance coverage is appropriate. Winter and the predicted El Nino to come could be a prime season for flooding in our area, so now is a good time to review your options. Read full article

Driving Tips for the Holiday Season—Winter is the most challenging season for drivers, and it only gets more intense around the holidays. If you're setting out on a holiday road trip, you can likely look forward to more traffic and worse weather than usual.

Throw in the rush factor—neither you nor anyone else on the road wants to be late for the celebration—and you have the potential for trouble. To avoid it, here are six important tips to keep in mind. Read full article
